DESTINATION

Spanning the River Danube, the combined history and renowned healing waters of Buda and Pest date back thousands of years, to long before their merger in 1873. High on the Danube's west bank, historic Buda reveals cobblestoned streets, medieval castles and churches, and glorious views. On the east bank, the commercial centre of Pest offers a rich palate of architecture, from Renaissance to modern, and superb shopping. Covering an area of 525 square kilometres (203 square miles), Budapest is home to two million people. It is also a culture-lover's dream, with elegant cafés, eclectic architecture, inspiring art collections, a multitude of museums and a lively theatre scene. Beyond the city, attractions within easy reach of the Hotel include Margaret Island, the artists' colony of Szentendre, and Lake Balaton, the largest freshwater lake in Central Europe.

WEATHER

Hungary's climate is temperate, and every season has its attractions. Spring arrives early in April and mild, wet weather may prevail through May and early June. Summer can be very hot, bringing with it the bright sun of the Mediterranean. The long, warm, sunny autumn, known in Hungary as Old Ladies' Summer, helps produce fine fruits and wine grapes. Winter is relatively short. Often cloudy and damp, it is sometimes brilliantly sunny.

The castle was rebuilt in 1715 in a modern baroque style and was expanded to its current size in 1790. The original Matthias Church was built in the 13th century and received its final neo-Gothic look in the 19th century. The outstanding Fishermen's Bastion, with its seven turrets representing Hungary's original seven tribes, was built on the site of a former fish market for the country's 1896 millennium; construction was completed in 1902. It offers great views of the city.

Széchenyi Bath:

- Located in City Woodland Park, this is one of Budapest's most famous and popular thermal baths. The complex includes three swimming pools and 12 thermal pools, with the water temperature in all 15 pools ranging from 20°C (68°F) to 38°C (100°F). Open year round, the pools offer floating chessboards as an added attraction.

Gellért Thermal Bath:

- Built in the secession (Art Nouveau) style, the world-famous Gellért Thermal Bath, highly favoured by locals and foreigners alike, opened its gates in 1918. It was expanded in 1927 with the wave bath and in 1934 with the effervescent bath. The Bath offers complete thermal bath facilities (including an outpatient hospital) and also features an inhalatorium.

Nagyházi Gallery and Auction House:

- The Nagyházi Gallery is one of the oldest auction houses in Hungary. As the largest of Budapest's antique contingent, Nagyházi features mainly furniture, paintings and porcelain. Auctions are routinely held at this location every month.

House of Terror Museum:

- The building housing the museum was used by the Nazi Party in the 1940's, and later became the headquarters of the Communist-era secret service. Now it is a memorial museum about both dictatorships.

The water off its northern beaches is suitable for strong swimmers, while the southern beaches offer more shallow waters. The lake's eastern beaches are favoured by sun worshippers. A few kilometres from the western edge is Heviz, Europe's largest thermal lake. Its curative hot sulphur springs are popular with those suffering from rheumatism and illnesses of the nervous system.

POOL

Continue your spa relaxation in the indoor pool located on the top floor of the Hotel, next to the spa. Your senses are also delighted by the overflowing water of the pool's infinity edge – water spills gently and evenly over an invisible edge, where it is caught and then redirected back into the pool. There is also an adjacent whirlpool. Poolside, refresh yourself with a cup of hot tea or some fresh fruit.

GOLF

Pannonia Golf and Country Club

One of the most beautiful golf courses in Hungary, the Pannonia Golf and Country Club is 30 to 40 minutes' drive from the centre of Budapest, set in the middle of a hilly district where the Habsburg family had a mansion in the 19th century. The course was designed by G. Erhardt and built by the British golf construction company Southern Golf. Golfers appreciate the imaginative course, the first-class greens and the scenic fairways.
