DESTINATION

The name Nevis is derived from the Spanish word “nieve,” which means snow. Christopher Columbus gave the name to the island when he discovered it in 1492, due to the clouds on top of the mountain that he could see as he approached.

This unspoiled island offers visitors the opportunity to experience the Caribbean as it should be. The climate is consistently pleasant and there are no monolithic hotel complexes, congested beaches or frantic commercial centres. In fact, the government does not allow buildings taller than two storeys, so that they will not be higher than the canopy cover of the palm trees.

Please note that all visitors to the Caribbean, including children three years and older, must possess a valid passport.

WEATHER

The island of Nevis enjoys warm temperatures, tempered by breezes from the northeast tradewinds. With low humidity and a brief rainy season, it's very pleasant year-round.

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS AND ACTIVITIES

At Four Seasons, you enjoy a unique vantage point from which to explore the sights, sounds and experiences around you. We hope the highlights of local attractions below help simplify your planning. Please let us know how else we can assist you.

Within a 5-minute drive of the Resort

Museum of Nevis History/Hamilton House:

- The museum's collection features exhibitions on the history, culture and environment of Nevis, focusing on geology, the indigenous people, the contact period, leisure time, cooking and home craft, schools, churches, Jewish heritage, government and politics. There is a lovely, quiet courtyard looking out over the water. Located at the Alexander Hamilton Birthplace in Charlestown, the museum is run by the Nevis Historical and Conservation Society (NHCS).

Within a 10-minute drive of the Resort

Cultural Complex:

- Situated at Stoney Grove in Charlestown, the Cultural Complex offers cultural activities from late July to early August.

Grove Park:

- Situated in Charlestown, Grove Park is the home of the Nevis Cricket Association. From January to June matches are played on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

The Horatio Nelson Museum:

- The Horatio Nelson Museum at Belle Vue, next to Government House, exhibits the largest collection of memorabilia in the New World related to Horatio Nelson (the British military hero who defeated the combined French and Spanish fleets at Trafalgar). An exhibition entitled "Nevis in the Time of Nelson" sets the stage for Nelson's accomplishments by telling the story of the pre-Columbian period and the era of sugar and slavery on Nevis. The artifacts, featuring prints, porcelain, glass, ship models and enamels, form one of the regions's most impressive decorative art collections.

Courthouse and Public Library:

- The Nevis Courthouse and Public Library was built in 1825 and is an imposing example of colonial stone architecture. Its windows stand open in a welcoming way and its first-floor shutters do double duty as the bulletin board for legal notices.

Within a 15-minute drive of the Resort

Montpelier House:

- Montpelier House was the site of Lord Nelson's marriage to Fanny Nisbet and her girlhood home. Nothing remains of the original house except the estate's entrance pillars, but it shares the grounds with the great house of Montpelier Plantation Inn, a sugar mill dating from 1794 and beautiful trees and gardens.

Within a 20-minute drive of the Resort

Nisbet Plantation:

- Nisbet has a white coral sand beach with a coral reef in front of the property. Some of our guests spend all or part of a day there, snorkeling and enjoying lunch at their beach-side restaurant, Coconuts.

Botanical Garden:

- The Botanical Garden of Nevis has incredible displays and collections of palms, orchids, cacti, flowering trees and shrubs. A gift shop and 1787 Bar and Bistro make this a wonderful place to spend an afternoon enjoying the plants, incredible views, dining and shopping. Situated at Cole Hill, Montpelier Estate in St. John's Parish.

Within a 25-minute drive of the Resort

Indian Castle Race Track:

- Situated in Gingerland, it is run by the Nevis Turf and Jockey Club. Open on holidays for horse racing, beginning at 1:00 pm. Contact president Richard Luppinacci at (869) 469-2201 for more information.

Within a 1-hour boat ride and drive of the Resort

Romney Manor Batik Factory and Gardens:

- Once owned by Sam Jefferson, the great-grandfather of Thomas Jefferson (third president of the United States). Set in approximately 4 hectares (10 acres) of grounds, Romney Manor is famous for two things: its majestic gardens and its batik factory, Caribelle Batik. Enjoy observing the artists as they demonstrate this fine art, using traditional "sea island cotton" and the old Indonesian methods of resisting dye with wax.

Beach houses

Guests of Four Seasons Resort Nevis can enjoy their own unique day at the beach when they check into one of the Resort's cabana-style beach houses, located adjacent to the Garden Pool and on the beach. These four free-standing retreats, just steps from the water's edge, feature sweeping views of the Caribbean Sea and Nevis' sister island of St. Kitts. Ideal for couples or families of up to five, these 18.6-square-metre (200-square-foot) beach houses are available for daily rentals from sunrise to sunset and offer an array of refreshing amenities.

The gingerbread-trimmed structures resemble native dwellings and house an indoor living room with couch, a dining nook and an open-air sun deck with chaises longues. The beach houses come with an iHome station and a mini library including board games, books, magazines and toys for kids. Also enjoy a complimentary minibar, scented towels and aloe-infused cooling mist and a specially designed chef's menu that highlights local and international market specialties.

Each cabana comes with the dedicated service of a House Attendant. A red and green flag system ensures unobtrusive service, giving guests the option to wave their "Do Not Disturb" flag or invite non-stop pampering. The cabanas, which feature open air decks, are also available for private dining in the evening. For additional information, please contact the Resort.
